Celebrate! New Credit Reporting

Standards

Approximately 12 million people are about to see an improvement in their credit scores, thanks to new standards set by the three national credit reporting agencies that went into effect July 1. Part of the National Consumer Assistance Plan (NCAP) to enhance credit reporting accuracy, the new standards create a long overdue minimum for personal identification before a public record can be added to a credit report. ## Social Spotlight: Topic of the Month

Now more than ever we find ourselves looking for a forum to talk about societal and political realities and what it means for ourselves and our customers. We can help! On Change Machine's SHARE Community, we have instituted a Topic of the Month based on some of the season's hottest (no pun intended) issues. This month, the Community is discussing healthcare and the health-wealth connection. Visit SHARE to learn more!
